

Senior Communications Officer – BECTU Sector

Clapham, London – 12 months fixed term contract (maternity cover)

£48,519 – £57,933 (plus Outer London weighting £1,770)

We're looking for an experienced, senior communications professional to help shape the way we engage in the media, digital and entertainment industries.

You will provide leadership and direction to our media, campaigns, communications and digital work in our BECTU sector. This is a 12-month opportunity providing maternity cover at the heart of our plans to grow as a union in media and entertainment.

Our BECTU sector represents over 40,000 members working in digital, broadcasting, film, theatre and the arts, live events and communications. We are a fast-growing sector providing voice and representation to freelancers and staff.

We are looking for someone who shares our passion for bringing people together to make the world of work better and fairer for all of us.

About the role

You will provide leadership to our communications helping to recruit, support and represent our members.

The role manages a small team working on media, social media, events and campaigns, and fits into our wider communications team in Prospect. With the recent appointment of a new head of the BECTU Sector, we are looking for someone who is experienced at media work and providing senior level advice, as well as being an agile communicator.

Diversity is an important value for the trade union movement, and as an organisation we are passionate about promoting equality at work and are committed to it for all our staff; we would be particularly interested in applications from groups that are under represented in the workplace.

This role is based at our BECTU Sector office in Clapham, London.

About Prospect & BECTU

Prospect has over 250 staff helping support over 143,000 members. Our members work in the private and the public sector, in a range of areas including energy, heritage, civil service, defence, communications, media, entertainment and many others.

Our BECTU sector is the UK's media and entertainment trade union.

As a union for modern working life we aim to get best deal for our members by using evidence and building partnerships with employers – while never being scared to call employers out when they get things wrong.

Prospect is a great place to work - this role has access to our high-quality defined benefit pension scheme and 33 days annual leave each year. We offer a good work-life balance and offer support for training and development.
