

Temporary Part-time Marketing and Sales Officer

Real World Fundraising, a fundraising and research consultancy, is looking for a temporary part time Marketing and Sales Officer for 2 months, 8 hours a week, starting as soon as possible.

Payment is £15 per hour.

Currently based in Covent Garden, we'll be moving to Borough, near Borough tube station, at the beginning of June.

We're looking for someone with experience of marketing and sales in charities, who is comfortable working in a liberal, progressive organisation and has a "can-do" positive approach. The person we take on will be working with Real World's founder to move our sales and marketing forward. We may be able to offer some degree of flexible working to the right person.
